Making a Film or Video in the Visual Arts?

ART ON FILM GIVES YOU THE FULL PICTURE

In today's competitive film world, under-researched means under-funded. Fortunately, for film and video makers in the visual arts, the Art on Film Database Service offers a simple, inexpensive and thorough approach to film research.

The Art on Film Database contains information on over 18,000 films and videos in the visual arts from more than 70 countries. It's convenient. It's extensive. And it's the essential first step to help you:

- Bolster Funding Proposals — Search for films in your subject area to prove the uniqueness of your project and its contribution to the field.
- Profit from Colleague Work — Search for a technique, time or medium — make your production flawless.
- Review Experience of Collaborators — Search for cinematographers, directors and editors to review their past work in visual arts film and video.
- Target Potential Distributors — Search to identify distributors who handle works similar to yours.

Easy on your budget, Art on Film charges per search, not per hour. The low one-time only sign-up fee includes your first search. For quick questions, a telephone "ready reference service" is free to subscribers.

If you're making a film or video in the visual arts, get the full picture. Call Art on Film today at (212) 988-4876 or send us a fax at (212) 628-8963.
