

Our Friends

Who We Are

Friends groups are started by volunteers, citizens like you, who want to help improve their community.

The Friends of the Jacksboro Library began in 1996, incorporated in 1997 and continue to work toward 501(c)3 status.

What We Do

We promote the Library.

We solicit support from community leaders.

We raise funds to purchase special materials and equipment not provided for in the regular budget.

We encourage volunteer opportunities within the Library.

We focus public attention on Library needs and services.

We help promote the enjoyment and use of the Library.

We develop supplemental funding for the Library.

Computer Access

@ your library you will find four public access computers. You must agree to our Acceptable Use Policies before using the computer.

Your library is a Community Center where people gather to seek information, access the Internet or encounter a friendly smile. Come visit us today.
